

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will yield, would he specify his amendment.

Mr. TRAFICANT. It is to peacekeeping and it in fact deals with the ceiling that is placed in the language; the 25-percent ceiling in the Traficant amendment deals with that. I want an opportunity to have that be included in the amendments to be offered, with a time period reserved for that.

Mr. GILMAN. How much time will the gentleman require?

Mr. TRAFICANT. Whatever time the gentleman deems necessary would be fine with the gentleman from Ohio.

Mr. GILMAN. We will grant the gentleman 5 minutes on his proposed amendment, at the end of all of the other consideration.

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Chairman, that is fine with this gentleman, and I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

Mr. SKELTON. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I also will not object, but I did not hear the amendment which we have discussed which I intend to offer on the list.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will yield, the order of amendments was cleared by the gentleman's leadership on his side of the aisle.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

Mr. ENGLE. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I am wondering if I could ask this of this chairman: I have an amendment which was brought up at the committee in chapter 4. I did not hear it read off. I wonder if, at the end of debate after all the other amendments have been read, there will be time for others to submit amendments.

Mr. GILMAN. If the gentleman will yield, Mr. Speaker, in response to the gentleman's inquiry, again the order of amendments was cleared by the leadership on the gentleman's side of the aisle. I suggest the gentleman take that up with his leadership.

Mr. ENGEL. Will there be time? With amendments that the gentleman mentioned, will there be time at the end of those amendments for other amendments to be submitted?

Mr. GILMAN. The order of amendments that were read consumes all of the remaining time.

As a further response to the gentleman, the remaining time is all consumed by the order of amendments. However, if there is any remaining time, we will be pleased to consider the gentleman's request tomorrow.

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, with all due respect, I object.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Objection is heard.

HOUR OF MEETING ON TOMORROW, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1995

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that when the House adjourn today, it adjourn to meet at 9 a.m. on Thursday, February 16.

The Speaker pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

Mr. MFUME. Reserving the right to object, Mr. Speaker, in an effort to try to make sure that we operate with some sense of comity, I direct this inquiry to the gentleman from New York [Mr. GILMAN].

There was one Member on our side of the aisle, the gentlewoman from California, who had wanted to offer an amendment in the title that has just been concluded and was not allowed to do that while she was on the floor seeking recognition. In an effort to try to move us off the impasse that we are on, would the gentleman from New York be open to this: as I understand it, the rule calls for the allowing of this amendment since amendments can be offered at any time, as I understand it, regardless of section?

Mr. GILMAN. If the gentleman would yield, Mr. Speaker, I believe that the gentlewoman was offering an amendment to title III. We have not arrived at that title yet.

Mr. MFUME. I am going to ask the gentlewoman now if it was title III or not. I thought it was the current title. It is my understanding, I say to the gentleman from New York [Mr. GILMAN], that it was title II that she was offering the amendment for.

Mr. GILMAN. The gentlewoman can offer her amendment at any time that she desires providing there is time remaining.

Mr. MFUME. Could the gentleman also by unanimous consent perhaps, as he seeks his request that was previously not agreed to, indicate her amendment as part of those amendments that will be considered?

Mr. GILMAN. We are going to have to revisit the schedule since there was an objection to the schedule.

Mr. MFUME. I do not know if the gentleman who raised the objection is still objecting or not.

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will yield, I am still objecting. I would like to know that I can get some definite time for my amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I have a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SEN-SENRENNER). The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, would it be appropriate for the gentleman from New York to reoffer his unanimous-consent request at this particular time?

Mr. GILMAN. I will be pleased to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will entertain a request from the gentleman from New York.

REQUEST FOR CONSIDERATION OF ADDITIONAL AMENDMENTS TO H.R. 7, NATIONAL SECURITY REVITALIZATION ACT

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I will be pleased to reoffer the unanimous-consent request with regard to the order of amendments and the time allocation.

Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that my previous unanimous-consent request be agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the right to object.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would ask the gentleman from New York [Mr. GILMAN] if the request is just as it was stated the last time, with the modification involving the proposed amendment of the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. TRAFICANT].

Mr. GILMAN. Yes, to include the request of the gentleman from Ohio.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. It is the same request with that modification?

Mr. GILMAN. Yes, with that modification.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

Mr. BONIOR. Reserving the right to object, Mr. Speaker, under my reservation I would ask the gentleman from New York [Mr. GILMAN] if we could accommodate the gentleman from New York [Mr. ENGEL] with a 5-minute request as we have accommodated the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. TRAFICANT].

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. BONIOR. I yield to the gentleman from New York.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I will be pleased to modify the request allocating 5 minutes to the gentleman from New York, with the understanding that it will be deducted from the title VI amendment, No. 28 or 43.

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. BONIOR. Under my reservation of objection, Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, under the reservation of objection, if I might, I just want to make sure I understand.

We have a bipartisan agreement on the remaining time in the 10 hours. It has been modified to provide an additional 10 minutes, 5 minutes to discuss—divided equally to discuss—

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman would yield, no, it is not an additional 10 minutes. We will have to
